JOURNALISM CHECKLIST, PAGE 2
REQUIRED ELECTIVE COURSES
Students must complete 12 units of JMS or LDT courses numbered 300 and higher.
JMS JMS JMS JMS
Recommended but not required: JMS 490 (Journalism Internship) Prerequisite: Completion of Level 1 Courses
AUXILARY DISCIPLINE. Students must complete at least 15 units, six units of which must be upper division, in ONE academic department outside of JMS (i.e. COMM, TFM, ART, SOC, RWS, POL S, etc.). You may choose any 15 units from that department, as long as at least six units are numbered 300 and higher.  Suggestion: Auxiliary Disciplines are not the same as minors. They do not show on transcripts. We suggest you complete a minor so that it will show on the transcript and can be easily communicated to others. For a minor, see the General Catalog for requirements and visit that department's academic adviser. You need an aux. discipline OR a minor – one or the other, not both.
AUXILIARY DISICPLINE OR MINOR?
Competency is required in one foreign language.
See "Graduation Requirements" in the General Catalog.
No more than 48 units of JMS will count toward the 120 units required to graduate. Completion of this major is 45 units. Do not take more than three additional JMS units.
